NEW YORK TIMES BUILDING ON ELECTION NIGHT.

Once in every four years the square dominated by the towerlike structure which is the home of the Times is the scene of unusual activity. On the night of presidential election day a vast throng gathers in the vicinity to watch the returns as they are displayed electrically. The square is filled with a vociferous host of men and women who remain until the result is made certain.

BIG PLANT TO RESUME WORK

Westinghouse Company of Pittsburgh Receives $6,000,000 Contract.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 4.—There is rejoicing in East Pittsburgh, where the plant of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company is located, over officials' announcements from Philadelphia and New York that the Westinghouse Company had been awarded the contract involving $6,000,000 at the start for the electrification of the Pennsylvania Company's New York terminals.

The contract, it is said, will give immediate work to at least 1,000 more men than are now employed and will keep the plant running for twenty months.

The contract, it is believed here, will have much weight in consummating the plans of the Merchandise Creditors' Committee for lifting the receivership now controlling the company.

MAN KILLED IN COLLISION

Two Steamers Collide in Potomac River With Fatal Results.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Early yesterday a collision occurred between the Norfolk and Washington steamer, City of Washington, bound from Norfolk for this city, and the Washington and Alexandria ferry boat, Lackawanna, bound for Washington. One man, Samuel Belan, forty years old, a merchant of Alexandria, but who resided in this city, was killed.

The collision is said to have been due to a confusion of signals and inability, on account of the low stage of the water, of the ferryboat's crew to handle her. The starboard side of the Lackawanna was torn away and the bow of the City of Washington was slightly damaged. The Lackawanna was beached.

LARGE CROWDS WERE DOWN TOWN

Kear Election Returns Tuesday Night at Auditorium and Opera House.

The Auditorium and the Opera House were crowded to the limit last night to hear the returns from the election. The crowds were on the streets at an early hour and continued until late in the night.

The result of the county was the first received. The ballots were received in the County Clerk's office and many hung around until all the precincts were heard from.

After the county had been heard from, the crowd began to scatter, some going to the Auditorium and some to the Opera House where they remained until a late hour.

The returns from New York were among the first to be received, nearly all of them showing a big Republican majority and a good many of the Democrats did not tarry long.

The crowds at both places seemed to be equally divided judging from the shouts that went up when the returns were read showing a majority for either side.

All was very orderly and no trouble of any kind was reported to the police either during the day or night.

CARD OF THANKS.

To our friends who were so kind, attentive and solicitous during the illness and death of our dear husband and father, James W. Watts, and whose words and deeds are treasured in grateful hearts as bright rays of comfort shining through the midnight of sorrow, we tender our sincere thanks. May heaven's choicest blessings abide with you always.

Mrs. Jas. Watts and Daughter.

The Crowd and Success.

Today there are no public entertainments save those which are intended for the world at large. Whether the entertainment provided takes the form of the drama, music or sport, the crowd is invited, and its presence is indispensable for both financial and moral success.—Hibbert Journal.

Now Is the Time.

As this is an off year, we are not over run with work. Although we are able to furnish our help 10 hours work a day every day in the week. We wish you would bring your work to us now while we can easily take care of it at less cost to ourselves and customers. Do not wait until times get good and we are very busy, for then you will have to pay more and wait longer for your work.

The above is especially directed to the Agriculturalist and is applicable to Manufacturers who are waiting for the good times that are sure to come soon after the holidays.

Do not put it off because it is small. We do not like small jobs when we are busy. You know how that is yourself.

RUN OVER AND KILLED BY HIS WAGON.

POPLAR HILL, Ky., Nov. 4.—Fred Shaw and Frank Chatman, teamsters, met with an accident which resulted in the death of Shaw and hurting Chatman badly.

They were both hauling stingle blocks with Chatman's team in front. They started over a steep rocky hill, and the brakes on Shaw's wagon gave way. Shaw started to jump to the hillside but landed under the heavy loaded wagon, the wheels passing over his body, breaking his neck, his right arm, crushing in his face, and his body was nearly cut in two.

MRS. MARY P. BARROW PASSES TO REWARD.

Wife of Prominent Physician is Laid to Rest Wednesday Afternoon.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 4.—Mrs. Mary Parham Barrow, wife of Dr. David Barrow, one of the South's most widely known physicians and surgeons, died at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning at the Good Samaritan Hospital from the results of an attack of pneumonia, her condition having been precarious since Saturday last. Every effort known to medical skill was employed to save her, but without avail, and she began to sink gradually at midnight, the end coming at the hour named.

Relatives at Bedside.

Mrs. Barrow's sister, Mrs. Werlein, of New Orleans; niece, Miss Ethel May Werlein, and her children were at the bedside as the noble wife and mother passed peacefully to the last sleep.

Miss Barrow was Miss Mary Parham, daughter of the late Beverly Parham, capitalist and one of the foremost citizens of New Orleans, and sister to Dr. Frederick Parham, eminent surgeon of New Orleans.

Mrs. Barrow's mother survives her. Mrs. Barrow's children are Misses Artemesia, Sue, Betty, Dr. Woolfolk Barrow, of New York Hospital; John and David, Jr.

The funeral took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from Fourth and Walnut streets.

Rev. Mr. Harris to Officiate. Rev. G. W. Harris will officiate at the funeral, and the pall bearers were:

Active—Dr. W. O. Bullock, Dr. J. T. Carriek, Dr. E. M. Wiley, Dr. J. T. McDermonds, Dr. John Scott, Dr. C. W. Norris, J. W. Stoll and L. G. Cox. Honorary—Dr. F. H. Clark, Dr. T. H. Kinnaird, Dr. L. S. McMartry, Dr. R. L. Willis, Dr. J. A. Stucky and Dr. Joseph Bryan.

The burial was in the family lot in the Lexington cemetery.

Not the Same Thing. The man who takes up a lot of room in a street car may not occupy any space at all in the hall of fame.
